

Rain Gardens 101

- A Professional Development Opportunity for DPW Staff -

*To Improve the Management of Coastal Ecosystems Through
Science, Education and Outreach*

CO - SPONSORED BY:

JC NERR'S COASTAL TRAINING PROGRAM

RUTGERS
COOPERATIVE
EXTENSION OF OCEAN COUNTY

THE FOREST RESOURCE EDUCATION CENTER

&

OCEAN COUNTY
SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT

AGENDA

9:00am – Introductions and Background

9:15am – Why Stormwater is Such a Dirty Word

- Rich Mohr and Cara Muscio, Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Ocean County

9:45am – Improving Retention Basins by Planting Rain Gardens

- Christine Raabe, Ocean County Soil Conservation District

10:30am – Break

10:45am – Planning and Design Before Planting a Rain Garden

- Terry O'Leary, Forest Resource Education Center (FREC)

11:30am – Rain Garden and Native Landscaping Resources

- Lisa Auermuller, Jacques Cousteau National Estuarine Research Reserve

11:45am – Tour of JC NERR Rain Garden

12:00pm - Conclude

*Three Technical Certified Public Works Manager Professional Development Credits
Are Available For This Program.*